Docket No. CP2015-104

ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR TEMPORARY RELIEF
AND APPROVING MODIFICATION TWO

(Issued September 7, 2016)

The negotiated service agreement approved in this proceeding (Existing Agreement) expired on August 31, 2016.<sup>1</sup> On September 2, 2016, the Postal Service filed a combined motion for temporary relief and notice of filing a modification

(Modification Two) to the Existing Agreement.<sup>2</sup> The Postal Service states that it expects to file a successor to the Existing Agreement in a new rate docket. Motion at 2. Pending the initiation of that docket, the Postal Service requests that the Commission approve the Existing Agreement, as modified, and list it on the Mail Classification Schedule from the day after the Commission completes its review until November 30, 2016. Id.; see also id. Attachment 1 at 1.

In its Motion, the Postal Service acknowledges that the Commission has previously directed it to file motions for temporary relief at least one week prior to the expiration date of the agreement.<sup>3</sup> The Postal Service explains that it “did not manage to sign the modification until September 1, 2016” due to miscommunications. Id. at 1, n.3.

The Commission appreciates the Postal Service’s candor. At the same time, the Commission observes that filing motions for temporary relief less than one week prior to an agreement’s expiration date appears to be becoming a routine practice on the part of

A redacted version of the modification appears as Attachment 1 to the Motion (Modification Two). Motion at 1, n.2. The customer and the Postal Service have executed Modification Two. Id. at 1. the Postal Service.<sup>4</sup> The Postal Service itself tacitly acknowledges this, stating that it is “in the process of taking steps to improve its renewal procedures for international negotiated service agreements.” Motion at 1, n.3.

The Commission has repeatedly stated that motions for temporary extensions of an agreement should be filed at least one week prior to the agreement’s expiration date.<sup>5</sup> Failure to do so may compromise the Commission’s ability to act prior to the contract’s expiration, which may inadvertently harm the Postal Service’s customers (e.g., inability to ensure continuity of previously negotiated rates).

The Commission reiterates that the dates on which contracts are scheduled to expire are known.<sup>6</sup> The Commission looks forward to the Postal Service’s improved contract renewal procedures so that motions like the instant Motion are not standard practice.

The Commission grants the Motion and approves Modification Two. Allowing the Existing Agreement to remain in effect temporarily is in the public interest and will not prejudice any person. The Existing Agreement is authorized to continue as of September 8, 2016, through November 30, 2016, unless terminated earlier pursuant to contractual terms.
